A Report of Your Diamond's Return of Light

Date: 21 Sep, 2006

This comparative analysis verifies the amount of light returned from a median diamond and The Leo Diamond®, measured in this Report. The Brilliance Scope® measures diamonds in a controlled lighting environment consisting of five light views.

WHITE LIGHT: The BrilliantScope® Analyzer measures the percentage of the diamond returning bright white light to the observer.

COLOUR LIGHT: The BrilliantScope® Analyzer measures the percentage of the diamond returning bright coloured light to the observer.

SCINTILLATION: The BrilliantScope® Analyzer measures the number of light points and determines how they change from position to position.
